Fourth Sunday after Epiphany

February 3rd, 2019

9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

The prelude is a sacred curtain dropped between the world and the sanctuary. The dimming of the lights is the signal for the congregation to observe silence. During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary.

(Please silence all phones and electronic devices.)

I will greatly rejoice in the LORD; my soul shall exult in my God, for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation; he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself like a priest with a beautiful headdress, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

Isaiah 61:10

And bow before His throne.

WE AFFIRM THE "SOLAS" OF THE PROTESTANT REFORMATION

Sola Scriptura: The Bible is the sole written divine revelation and alone can bind the conscience of believers absolutely.

Sola Fide: Justification is by faith alone. The merit of Christ, imputed to us by faith, is the sole ground of our acceptance by God, by which our sins are remitted, and imputed to Christ.

Solus Christus: Christ is the only mediator through Whose work we are redeemed.

Sola Gratia: Our salvation rests solely on the work of God's grace for us.

Soli Deo Gloria: To God alone belongs the glory.

"Saint Andrew's has been self-consciously designed to reflect and recapture historic and classical worship. We see worship as an act of offering sacrifice and praise to God. This is our priority: to worship God according to how He commands, not according to what may be popular in a particular culture in a particular time. Central to our worship is the proclamation of the Word of God by way of biblical exposition. Saint Andrew's stands in the tradition of Reformation faith and practice."

Saint Andrew's Chapel is committed to the primacy of corporate worship. We believe God sovereignly establishes and increases faith through the ordinary means of grace: the Word of God, prayer, and the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's Supper. Regular attendance to these means is vital for believers' spiritual nourishment and growth in the grace and knowledge of Jesus Christ. God's people are therefore called to participate regularly in Lord's Day corporate worship, in dependence upon God's Spirit who applies Christ's benefits through His Word, prayer, and the sacraments. As such, we encourage you and your family to consider the various ministries, fellowship events, and educational opportunities, such as weekly Bible studies and Sunday school classes, as supplements to corporate worship, but never as replacements of corporate worship.
