Fourth Sunday after Easter

April 28th, 2024

9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

The prelude is a sacred curtain dropped between the world and the sanctuary. The dimming of the lights is the signal for the congregation to observe silence. During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary. (Please silence all phones and non-medical electronic devices.)

I remember the days of old; I meditate on all that you have done; I ponder the work of your hands. I stretch out my hands to you; my soul thirsts for you like a parched land. Let me hear in the morning of your steadfast love, for in you I trust. Make me know the way I should go, for to you I lift up my soul.

Psalm 143:5-6, 8

STRIKING OF THE HOUR

INTROIT

This Joyful Eastertide Arr. A. Parker and R. Shaw
This joyful Eastertide,
Away with sin and sorrow!
My Love, the Crucified,
Hath sprung to life this morrow.
Had Christ, that once was slain,
Ne'er burst His three-day prison,
Our faith had been in vain:
But now is Christ arisen.

See the Conqueror Mounts in Triumph
Text: C. Wordsworth Tune: C.H.H. Parry/RUSTINGTON

See the Conqu'ror mounts in triumph, see the King in royal state
Riding on the clouds His chariot to His heav'nly palace gate;
Hark, the choirs of angel voices joyful alleluias sing,
And the portals high are lifted to receive their heav'nly King.

Who is this that comes in glory, with the trump of jubilee?
Lord of battles, God of armies, He has gained the victory;
He who on the cross did suffer, He who from the grave arose,
He has vanquished sin and Satan, He by death has spoiled His foes.

He has raised our human nature on the clouds to God's right hand;
There we sit in heav'nly places, there with Him in glory stand:
Jesus reigns, adored by angels; man with God is on the throne;
Mighty Lord, in Thine ascension we by faith behold our own.

See Him who is gone before us heav'nly mansions to prepare,
See Him who is ever pleading for us with prevailing prayer,
See Him who with sound of trumpet and with His angelic train,
Summoning the world to judgment, on the clouds will come again.

Following the benediction, let us greet and welcome one another as Christ has welcomed us, for the glory of God (Romans 15:7), remembering what our Lord teaches us in the Scriptures: "Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ" (Galatians 6:2).

Evening Worship Service 5:00 pm
Philemon 1:6-22
"Paul's Plea"
Dr. Burk Parsons

We are scheduled to celebrate the Lord's Supper next Lord's Day during the morning worship services. Let us therefore follow Paul's admonition in 1 Corinthians 11:27-29 to partake of the Lord's Supper in a worthy manner by examining ourselves before the Lord. The Westminster Shorter Catechism states, "It is required of them that would worthily partake of the Lord's Supper, that they examine themselves of their knowledge to discern the Lord's body, of their faith to feed upon Him, of their repentance, love, and new obedience; lest, coming unworthily, they eat and drink judgment to themselves" (Answer 97).

✚ Those who are able, please stand.
* Please sign and pass the black attendance registers when the offering is collected.
