Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Romans 5:1–2

The prelude is a sacred curtain dropped between the world and the sanctuary. The dimming of the lights is the signal for the congregation to observe silence. During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary. (Please silence all phones and electronic devices.)

R.C. Sproul/J. Lippincott

No place is there for troubled hearts, believe in God, also in Him. All fear of death from us departs, doubts removed remain so dim.

The Father’s house has ample room, He’d tell us if it were not true. His bride hears from her sacred groom, truth that stands for me and you. Refrain

Where He is now, we will be, called away from earthly strife. His glory we shall surely see, through His gift, eternal life. Come away to prepare a place, our spirits still in silence groan. The promise certain by His grace, soon we’ll see our heavenly home. Refrain

His legacy is one of peace, salvation is the final gift. All troubled hearts will surely cease, souls at once will soon uplift. Where He is now, we will be, called away from earthly strife. Saint Andrew’s Chancel and Youth Choirs
