Second Sunday after Epiphany

January 19th, 2025

9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

The prelude is a sacred curtain dropped between the world and the sanctuary. The dimming of the lights is the signal for the congregation to observe silence. During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary. (Please silence all phones and non-medical electronic devices.)

Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears us up; God is our salvation. Our God is a God of salvation, and to GOD, the Lord, belong deliverances from death.

Psalm 68:19-20

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Heidelberg Catechism #1-2

Minister: What is your only comfort in life and in death?

People: That I am not my own, but belong—body and soul, in life and in death—to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ. He has fully paid for all my sins with His precious blood, and has set me free from the tyranny of the devil. He also watches over me in such a way that not a hair can fall from my head without the will of my Father in heaven: in fact, all things must work together for my salvation. Because I belong to Him, Christ, by His Holy Spirit, assures me of eternal life and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for Him.

Minister: What must you know to live and die in the joy of this comfort?

People: Three things: first, how great my sin and misery are; second, how I am set free from all my sins and misery; third, how I am to thank God for such deliverance.

*OFFERINGS & OFFERTORY

Hail to the Lord's Anointed from The Nativity

E.H. Thiman

Hail to the Lord's anointed! Great David's greater Son; Hail, in the time appointed, His reign on earth begun! He comes to break oppression, to set the captive free; To take away transgression, and rule in equity.

Kings shall fall down before Him, and gold and incense bring; All nations shall adore Him, His praise all people sing: To Him shall prayer unceasing and daily vows ascend; His kingdom still increasing, a kingdom without end.

He shall come down like showers upon the fruitful earth, And love, joy, hope, like flowers spring in His path to birth: Before Him on the mountains shall peace the herald go; And righteousness in fountains from hill to valley flow.

O'er ev'ry foe victorious, He on His throne shall rest, From age to age more glorious, all blessing and all-blest: The tide of time shall never His covenant remove; His name shall stand forever; that name to us is Love. Amen.

Following the benediction, let us greet and welcome one another as Christ has welcomed us, for the glory of God (Romans 15:7), remembering what our Lord teaches us in the Scriptures: "I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace" (Ephesians 4:1-3).
