Fourth Sunday in Lent

March 19th, 2023

9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

The prelude is a sacred curtain dropped between the world and the sanctuary. The dimming of the lights is the signal for the congregation to observe silence. During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary.

(Please silence all phones and electronic devices.)

He sent redemption to his people; he has commanded his covenant forever. Holy and awesome is his name! The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; all those who practice it have a good understanding. His praise endures forever!

Psalm 111:9-10

How Lovely, Lord, How Lovely

Text: A. Duba, from Psalm 84 Tune: MERLE'S TUNE by H. Hopson

How lovely, Lord, how lovely is Your abiding place; My soul is longing, fainting, to feast upon Your grace. The sparrow finds a shelter, a place to build her nest, And so Your temple calls us within its walls to rest. A sun and shield forever are You, O Lord Most High; You shower us with blessings; no good will You deny. The saints, Your grace receiving, From strength to strength shall go, And from their life shall rivers of blessing overflow.

What God Ordains J. Bauder

What God ordains is always good, His will is just and holy; And though the path be wrought with thorns, I follow meek and lowly. My God indeed in ev'ry need Knows well how He will shield me; To Him, then, I will yield me.

What God ordains is always good, He is my Friend and Father; He suffers naught to do me harm, Though many storms may gather. Now I may know both joy and woe, Someday I shall see clearly That He hath loved me dearly.

What God ordains is always good Though I the cup am drinking

Which savors now of bitterness, I take it without shrinking, For after grief God gives relief, My heart with comfort filling, And all my sorrow stilling.

What God ordains is always good: This truth remains unshaken. Though sorrow, need, or death be mine, I shall not be forsaken. I fear no harm, for with His arm He shall embrace and shield me. So to my God I yield me. Amen.
