(Please observe silence when the prelude begins.)

Maundy Thursday is the special commemoration of Christ's institution of the Lord's Supper. Historically, on this day, the church has celebrated the Lord's Supper. The Lord gave us this new commandment, mandatum novum, to love one another as He loved us.

Chancel Choir

Please remain seated as the communion table is stripped, representing the stripping of Jesus of His earthly garments and His dignity in the hours that followed.

During this time Psalm 22:1-15 will be recited, after which the congregation is asked to follow the pastors and the choir out of the sanctuary in silence.
