

SAINT ANDREW'S CHAPEL

Third Sunday of Easter

April 19th, 2026

9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

The prelude is a sacred curtain dropped between the world and the sanctuary. The dimming of the lights is the signal for the congregation to observe silence. During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary. (Please silence all phones and non-medical electronic devices.)

“Death is swallowed up in victory.”
“O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?”
The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
1 Corinthians 15:54b-57

A Prayer for Living

Text: Ephesians 1:18-22/adapted by E.T. Childs

Music: E.T. Childs

Open our eyes, LORD; enlighten our hearts.
Fill us with the knowledge of Your marvelous pow'r
That raised Christ from the dead and gave Him great glory
Forever and ever. Amen.

I Know That My Redeemer Lives

Text: S. Medley

Tune: DUKE STREET/E.T. Childs

I know that my Redeemer lives;
O the sweet joy this sentence gives!
He lives, He lives, who once was dead;
He lives, my everlasting Head.

He lives triumphant from the grave;
He lives eternally to save;
He lives exalted, throned above;
He lives to rule His church in love.

He lives to bless me with His love,
And still He pleads for me above;
He lives, my hungry soul to feed;
He lives to help in time of need.

He lives, my kind, wise, constant Friend;
Who still will keep me to the end;
He lives, and while He lives I will sing,
Jesus, my Prophet, Priest and King.

He lives, all glory to His Name;
He lives, my Savior, still the same;
What joy the blest assurance gives:
I know that my Redeemer lives!

Following the benediction, let us greet and welcome one another as Christ has welcomed us, for the glory of God (Romans 15:7), remembering what our Lord teaches us in the Scriptures: “Behold, how good and pleasant it is when brothers dwell in unity! It is like the precious oil on the head, running down on the beard, on the beard of Aaron, running down on the collar of his robes! It is like the dew of Hermon, which falls on the mountains of Zion! For there the Lord has commanded the blessing, life forevermore” (Psalm 133:1-3).
