Sixth Sunday of Easter

May 10, 2026

9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

The prelude is a sacred curtain dropped between the world and the sanctuary. The dimming of the lights is the signal for the congregation to observe silence. During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary. (Please silence all phones and non-medical electronic devices.)

O Israel, hope in the LORD!
For with the LORD there is steadfast love,
and with him is plentiful redemption.
And he will redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

Psalm 130:7-8

Now the Green Blade Rises

Text: J. Crum

Tune: NOËL NOUVELET/arr B. Vantine

Now the green blade rises, from the buried grain,
So our Lord will call us back to life again.
Love lives again to free us from our sin;
Love is come again, like wheat arising green.

Come, Ye Faithful

Text: J. Damascene/tr. J. M. Neale

Music: R.S. Thatcher

Come, ye faithful, raise the strain of triumphant gladness;
God hath brought His Israel into joy from sadness;
'Tis the spring of souls today, Christ hath burst His prison,
And from three days sleep in death as a sun hath risen.

Now the queen of seasons, bright with the day of splendour,
With the royal feast of feasts, comes its joy to render;
Comes to glad Jerusalem, who with true affection
Welcomes in unwearied strains Jesu's resurrection.

Neither might the gates of death, nor the tomb's dark portal,
Nor the watchers, nor the seal, hold Thee as a mortal;
But today amidst the twelve Thou didst stand, bestowing
That Thy peace which evermore passeth human knowing.

Following the benediction, let us greet and welcome one another as Christ has welcomed us, for the glory of God (Romans 15:7), remembering what our Lord teaches us in the Scriptures: "Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near" (Hebrews 10:23-25).
