Trinity Sunday

May 31, 2026

9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

The prelude is a sacred curtain dropped between the world and the sanctuary. The dimming of the lights is the signal for the congregation to observe silence. During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary. (Please silence all phones and non-medical electronic devices.)

In the year that King Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and the train of his robe filled the temple. Above him stood the seraphim. Each had six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. And one called to another and said:

“Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory!”

Isaiah 6:1-3

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power,
And the glory, forever, Amen.

OFFERINGS & OFFERTORY

The Morning Trumpet

Text: J. Leland

Music: from “The Sacred Harp”/arr. B. Burroughs

O when shall I see Jesus, and reign with Him above,
And hear the trumpet sound in that morning?
And from the flowing fountain drink everlasting love,
And hear the trumpet sound in that morning?

O shout glory! I shall mount above the skies,
When I hear the trumpet sound in that morning.

But now I am a soldier, my Captain's gone before,
And I hear the trumpet sound in that morning.
He's given me my orders and He bids me ne'er give o'er,
Till I hear the trumpet sound in that morning.

Sinfonia

Following the benediction, let us greet and welcome one another as Christ has welcomed us, for the glory of God (Romans 15:7), remembering what our Lord teaches us in the Scriptures: “I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace” (Ephesians 4:1-3).

We are pleased to welcome the Student Choir from Independent Presbyterian Church in Memphis, TN this morning as they sing together with our Chancel Choir. They are visiting SAC as a part of their annual summer tour. Under the direction of James A. Brown, Jr. the IPC Student Choir is on its 30th annual tour.

Evening Worship Service 5:00 pm

Psalm 5

“A Confident Groan”

Rev. Aaron Garriott

We are scheduled to celebrate the Lord's Supper next Lord's Day during the morning worship services. Let us therefore follow Paul's admonition in 1 Corinthians 11:27-29 to partake of the Lord's Supper in a worthy manner by examining ourselves before the Lord. The Westminster Shorter Catechism states, “It is required of them that would worthily partake of the Lord's Supper, that they examine themselves of their knowledge to discern the Lord's body, of their faith to feed upon Him, of their repentance, love, and new obedience; lest, coming unworthily, they eat and drink judgment to themselves” (Answer 97).
