

SAINT ANDREW’S CHAPEL

The Sunday after Ascension Day

June 1st, 2025

9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

The prelude is a sacred curtain dropped between the world and the sanctuary. The dimming of the lights is the signal for the congregation to observe silence. During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary. (Please silence all phones and non-medical electronic devices.)

Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and lifting up his hands he blessed them. While he blessed them, he parted from them and was carried up into heaven. And they worshiped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, and were continually in the temple blessing God.

Luke 24:50–53

STRIKING OF THE HOUR

INTROIT

The Head That Once Was Crowned with Thorns
Text: T. Kelly Tune: ST. MAGNUS
The head that once was crowned with thorns
Is crowned with glory now;
A royal diadem adorns
The mighty Victor’s brow.
The highest place that heav’n affords
Is His, is His by right,
The King of kings and Lord of lords,
And heav’n’s eternal Light.

The Ascension
Text: J. Beaumont Music: P. Moore
Refrain
Lift up your heads, great gates, and sing,
Now glory comes, and glory’s King;
Now by your high all golden way
The fairer heaven comes home today.
Hark! now the gates are ope,
And hear the tune of each triumphant sphere;
Where every angel as he sings
Keeps time with his applauding wings,
And makes the heavens loftiest roof rebound
The echoes of the noble sound.
