SAINT ANDREW'S CHAPEL

Fourth Sunday after Pentecost July 6tb, 2025 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

The prelude is a sacred curtain dropped between the world and the sanctuary. The dimming of the lights is the signal for the congregation to observe silence. During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary. (Please silence all phones and non-medical electronic devices.)

 ∞

Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD! O Lord, hear my voice! Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleas for mercy! If you, O LORD, should mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand? But with you there is forgiveness, that you may be feared.

Psalm 130:1-4

The terrors of law and of God With me can have nothing to do; My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my trangressions from view. The work which His goodness began, The arm of His strength will complete; His promise is Yea and Amen, And never forfeited yet. Things future nor things that are now, Nor all things below or above. My name from the palms of His hands Erenity will not erase; Impressed on His heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace. Yes, I to the end shall endure, As sure as the earnest is giv'n. Allegro from Flute Concerto in D

Sinfonia

Following the benediction, let us greet and welcome one another as Christ has welcomed us, for the glory of God (Romans 15:7), remembering what the Scriptures say: "There is one body and one Spirit-just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call-one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all" (Ephesians 4:4-6).
