Sunday after All Saint's Day

November 3rd, 2024

9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

The prelude is a sacred curtain dropped between the world and the sanctuary. The dimming of the lights is the signal for the congregation to observe silence. During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary. (Please silence all phones and non-medical electronic devices.)

I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and will execute justice for the needy. Surely the righteous shall give thanks to your name; the upright shall dwell in your presence.

Psalm 140:12-13

PRELUDE

Sonata Settima à 4 in d

J. Rosenmüller

Sinfonia

STRIKING OF THE HOUR

INTROIT

Let Us Now Our Voices Raise

Text: Joseph the Hymnographer, 9th cent.

Music: GAUDEAMUS PARITER

Let us now our voices raise, wake the day with gladness; God himself to joy and praise turns our human sadness; Joy that martyrs won their crown opened heaven's portal, When they laid the mortal down for the life immortal.

Up and follow, Christians all: press through toil and sorrow; Turn from fear, and heed the call to a glorious morrow! Who will venture on the strife; who will first begin it? Who will grasp the land of Life? Christians, up and win it!

Give Us the Wings of Faith

Text: I. Watts

Music: E. Bullock

Give us the wings of faith to rise
Within the veil and see
The saints above, how great their joys,
How bright their glories be.

We ask them whence their victory came,
They, with one united breath,
Ascribe the conquest to the Lamb,
Their triumph to His death.

They marked the footsteps that He trod,
His zeal inspired their breast;
And, following their incarnate God,
They reached the promised rest.

*BENEDICTION

*POSTLUDE

Fugue from Concerto Grosso in e

W. Boyce

Sinfonia

Following the benediction, let us greet and welcome one another as Christ has welcomed us, for the glory of God (Romans 15:7), remembering what our Lord teaches us in the Scriptures: "Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins. Show hospitality to one another without grumbling" (1 Peter 4:8-9).
