The prelude is a sacred curtain dropped between the world and the sanctuary. The dimming of the lights is the signal for the congregation to observe silence. During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary. (Please silence all phones and non-medical electronic devices.)

Great indeed, we confess, is the mystery of godliness: He was manifested in the flesh, vindicated by the Spirit, seen by angels, proclaimed among the nations, believed on in the world, taken up in glory.

Et de virgineo ventre procreatus.

Let resound today the voices of children,
Joyfully praising Him Who is born to us,
Given by most high God,
And conceived in a virginal womb.

Omnes clericuli, pariter pueri
Cantent ut angeli: advenisti mundo,
Laudes tibi fundo.
Ideo, gloria in excelsis Deo.

Let all priests just like boys
Sing like angels: "You have come to the world;
I pour out praises to You.
Therefore, glory to God in the highest."

Wexford Carol
Text: Origin unknown Music: Traditional Irish carol; arr. D. Mears

Good people all, this Christmastide, consider well, and bear in mind
What our good God for us has done in sending His beloved Son.
Like Mary, holy we should pray to God with love this Christmas day.

In Bethlehem upon that morn there was a blessed Messiah born.
The night before that happy tide the noble virgin and her guide
Were long time seeking up and down to find a lodging in the town.

But mark how all things came to pass: from ev'ry door repelled, alas!
As long foretold their refuge all was but a humble ox's stall.

Let all your songs and praises be unto His heav'nly majesty;
And evermore, amongst our mirth, remember Christ our Savior's birth.

That night the virgin Mary mild was safe deliver'd of a child;
According unto heav'ns decree, man's sweet salvation for to be.
Good people all, this Christmastide, consider well, and bear in mind
What our good God for us has done in sending His beloved Son.

Following the benediction, let us greet and welcome one another as Christ has welcomed us, for the glory of God (Romans 15:7), remembering what our Lord teaches us in the Scriptures: "Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near" (Hebrews 10:23-25).

Celebration of the Lord's Supper

We are scheduled to celebrate the Lord's Supper next Lord's Day during the morning worship services. Let us therefore follow Paul's admonition in 1 Corinthians 11:27-29 to partake of the Lord's Supper in a worthy manner by examining ourselves before the Lord. The Westminster Shorter Catechism states, "It is required of them that would worthily partake of the Lord's Supper, that they examine themselves of their knowledge to discern the Lord's body, of their faith to feed upon Him, of their repentance, love, and new obedience; lest, coming unworthily, they eat and drink judgment to themselves" (Answer 97).
